Human Resources Policy (Sample)

Document status: fictional sample for technical demonstration only.

1. Casual Leave

Eligible full-time employees are provided 12 days of casual leave per calendar year under this sample policy. Casual leave should be requested in advance through the HR portal and is subject to approval by the reporting manager.

2. Sick Leave

Eligible full-time employees receive 10 days of sick leave per calendar year. A medical certificate may be requested for extended absence in accordance with HR procedures.

3. Maternity Leave

Maternity leave eligibility and duration shall be administered in accordance with applicable Indian law and the institution's approved HR rules. Employees should contact HR for a confidential eligibility review and required documentation. This sample policy intentionally does not define a separate statutory entitlement.

4. Work Hours

The normal administrative work schedule is 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday, with a lunch break as notified by the department.

5. Leave Application

Employees should submit leave requests through the HR portal. Emergency absence should be reported to the reporting manager as soon as reasonably possible and documented after return, following HR procedures.
